

Leadership Scholarship Guidelines

Purpose.

The Montana FFA Foundation offers scholarship programs to Montana FFA members to continue their personal growth and education while developing an educated workforce for our state. Our leadership scholarships help offset the costs of attending the Montana FFA Alumni Leadership Camp (ALC), Washington Leadership Conference (WLC), and National FFA Convention.

Who can apply.

Any active Montana FFA member who meets the following criteria may apply for the Foundation Leadership Scholarships:

- Irene Andres National Convention Scholarship: Active FFA member
- Holt Family, John Bliss National Convention Scholarship: Active FFA member, must be freshman, sophomore, or junior in the fall
- Sam Cornthwaite ALC Scholarship: Active FFA member, cannot have previously attended camp, displays some financial need
- Sam Cornthwaite WLC Scholarship: Active FFA member, displays some financial need

Application timeline.

Students apply in the fall and are awarded the scholarships in the spring to be used over the summer (ALC and WLC) or during the following fall (National Convention). A link to the online application will be posted on the Montana FFA website when the application opens: montanaffa.org > Association > Applications > Leadership Scholarship Application

- <http://montanaffa.org/applications/>

Application materials.

Students who apply must also have their advisor complete the Advisor Scholarship Reference Form by the December 31st deadline in order to have a complete application: montanaffa.org > Association > Applications > Reference Form

- <http://montanaffa.org/applications>

Complete application: Leadership Scholarship Application (student) Reference Form (advisor)
