

Day 3

2019 Legend

New members to FFA have a chance to apply to become the Star Greenhand. Mr. Wearley suggests that any member looking to get involved with this works on their speaking skills as well as get really involved with everything FFA. ~Mackenzie Quick, Electric City

Mr. Bill Pelton held a BQA workshop informing attendees about his personal business, marketing and consulting, low stress cattle handling, and why you should certify. Some of the information presented at this workshop is available at www.bqa.org. ~Kelli O'Neill, Electric City

Cullen Gilbreath
From The Reach High Montana

To Write a winning essay:
-Use key words,
-An engaging start
-Know your audience

Luke O'Leary, National FFA President, started off the Donor Banquet by thanking all donors for their support. Our donors help provide the funds to keep our amazing, Scholarships, and SAE Grants were given to their selected winners. Thank You donors! ~Makayla Dines, Geraldine

The Four finalists in extemporaneous speaking gave their speeches in the Procrastinator Theater today at 9am. Their topics range far from the lumber industry to the use of media. Anxiously they await their results at tonight's general session. ~Makayla Dines, Geraldine

2019 Legend

Senior members presented The FFA Creed. They answered questions pertaining their knowledge about agriculture. ~Brenda Hassan, Fromberg FFA

Colleen Barnard

In 2018 "The Most Inspirational" became an event. Mrs. Barnard was the 1st Montana Sweet Heart! She has been involved in Agriculture throughout her life!

Officers from all different chapters learned very important skills to bring back to their chapters. They learned about building relationships, modeling expectations, and performing consistently. Officers learned how to take initiative and set good examples for their peers. ~Brenda Hassan, Fromberg, FFA

St. Labrie and the Little Big Horn FFA Chapters presented The American Indian Program. The teams gave presentations on Native American History, Music, and Dance. These individuals feel this program is significant because, "it shows how important our culture and traditions are to us and it gives an insight to our costumes." ~Makayla Dines, Geraldine

Montana Fish Wildlife and Parks, Fish Technology Center welcomed members to their facility. There were three fish species involved in a research project to make sustainable fish foods. ~Tobias Alvarez, North Toole County